RE: BRICABRAC

Dear Miss Lazavecchia:

Please receive our warm greetings from the organizing committee of the 8th Children's Theatre Festival from the IATA/AITA.

We are very please with your proposal and we are officially inviting your group to be part of this 8th Festival.
The theatre piece has undeniable values worth of admiration by the theatres of our city.

Building a better future through the theatre we can become better persons every day.
With the presence of your group we will try to share experiences and build a better future for the children and a worthy present for the adults.

Any information you might need please contact us as soon as possible.
We will communicate with you briefly.

Sincerely,

Rolando Vazquez
Honorary President
